

Attitudinal Dynamics of Driving (DDC-ADD)

Train-the-Trainer Instructor Course

This program shows problem drivers the direct connection between their attitude and their driving behaviors. It helps drivers, themselves, to recognize that their reckless driving and its consequences result from their own choices. It guides them towards accepting responsibility for their actions. Pre- Entrance Assignment and Test

November 5- 7, 2007
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Why should you attend?

NSC's driver improvement courses show proven reduction in the number and severity of collisions among our graduates. According to a study prepared for the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles in 2000, DDC-ADD participants showed a 49% decrease in minor traffic violations, a 44% decrease in major traffic violations and a 41% decrease in surchargeable accidents.
