

OFF-THE-JOB Safety Awareness

Fun • Free • Informative

Offered to you FREE by the CHESAPEAKE REGION SAFETY COUNCIL

Monday, June 27, 2005 9 am - 4 pm

DID YOU KNOW? Employees are eight times more likely to be killed OFF the job as on the job and they are twice as likely to be hurt while away from work. In recognition of National Safety Month the Chesapeake Region Safety Council is presenting the following FREE SESSIONS on off-the-job and home safety. Choose one topic, choose a few or stay all day...

Home Safety

9 am - 9:45 am

Learn about window safety, poison prevention, keeping kids safe from falls and first aid to make your home a safer place to live.

Always Ask an Adult

10 am - 11 am

Terry Miles, Creator of "Always Ask an Adult"

A one-of-a-kind show & tell presentation of more than 100 products that focus on the hidden and unintentional dangers of clever packaging and labeling of goods marketed to children and adolescents. Parents will be astonished.

Emergency Preparedness

11:15 am - 12 pm

Are you prepared for household emergencies? This session is a great opportunity to review your preparedness and to improve on it. It will address the basic components of emergency preparedness that apply to every household.

Sun & Heat Safety

12:30 pm - 1 pm

During late spring and summer many people like to spend time outside in the sun for fun or work. Overexposure to the sun is not only damaging to your skin but also to other body functions.

Summer Activity Safety

1:15 pm - 2 pm

Discussion on topics such as playground safety, water and canoe safety, correct child swing set assembly and safety on horseback riding and children.

Bicycling Safety

2:15 pm - 3 pm

Thomas Rinker, Manager,
All American Bicycles

Presentation includes a Pre-ride/post-ride checklist, the importance of wearing a helmet, child bicycling safety and helpful skateboarding safety tips.

Motor Vehicle Safety

3:15 pm - 4 pm

Joe Schwartz, Traffic Director, Chesapeake Region Safety Council

Featured topics include seatbelt safety, pedestrian safety, aggressive driving as well as a review of the basic child restraint seat laws and best practices. Information on child seat installation and inspection facilities will also be available.
